

Oxford University Fencing Club Constitution 2017/18

Name & Objects

- 1) The Club is called the Oxford University Fencing Club. This is a federal name which incorporates the following teams: the men's and women's first teams (known as The Blues) and the men's and women's second teams (known as The Assassins); the Club's objectives are the support, development, improvement and promotion of fencing in the University of Oxford in individual, corporate and national senses; and the Club's income and property shall be applied solely to those objectives. The Club shall endeavour to promote fencing to people of all abilities and encourage and enable competitive fencers to progress.

Compliance

Every effort is to be made to comply with all the safety procedures that the British Fencing Association prescribes or recommends as good practice.
 - c) The Club shall ensure that all paid Club administrative and coaching appointments are ratified by the University's Sports Strategy Committee and that all paid coaches are registered with and accredited by a recognised governing body.
